Welcome to IMA International

IMA International offers services for the international development community from open courses, tailor-made training, facilitation for organisational change, mentoring, research

What do we offer?

With services for decision-makers, implementers and development practitioners, from small groups to large complex organisations, we draw on experience and current thinking to add value to your work and develop positive behaviour changes to guide and improve your practices.

With over 39 years of experience in creating effective space for learning, people choose us because we offer a chance to reflect on their practice, share experiences, and learn about innovative approaches in development to promote sustainable change.
