

CERTIFICATE IN INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT MANAGEMENT

This 15-day specialised certificate course combines our Leadership and Management in Development course with our Monitoring, Evaluation, Accountability and Learning training. After developing your M&E skills, be empowered with practical leadership and management skills to help you become a successful manager. This practical course is designed for managers and M&E officers who need to implement M&E in their projects or make decisions at a project or programme level. Our trainers are development practitioners with extensive field experience, making this a leading M&E and management training course.

“ The IMA course has been an agent of change in thinking on overall perspectives. The training course builds confidence and transforms individuals and institutions with contemporary leadership and management. ”

Tenzin Wangchuk, CIDM alumni
