

KNOWLEDGE MANAGEMENT

Do you need help with a KM plan? Or want to enhance your organisation's ability to learn quickly and remain agile? Join our experienced facilitators and together, with a peer group, you will learn using a mix of participatory and practical activities, theory/case examples, and through sharing your knowledge and experiences. Specifically designed for development professionals, KM is an essential course to enhance the way that organisations learn from its people and experiences of programmes run by NGOs, governments, UN agencies and private sector organisations.

“Recommend this course to anyone taking on the KM role or already working on KM. The information I have learned on KM elements, tools, environment, etc. is invaluable. Do yourself a favour and sign up for the KM course with IMA!”
